ANNEX I TERMS OF REFERENCE

A. Project Title and Background: Consultancy – Support for Building Capacity for Non-State Actors to Lead Sustainable Agriculture Policy Development

Background:

The Pacific Organic & Ethical Trade Community POETCom, is a membership organisation and the peak body for organic agriculture in the region. POETCom manages the Pacific Organic Standard and Guarantee Scheme on behalf of the Heads of Agriculture of the Pacific Community. (POETCom) is a not-for-profit membership organisation with 53 active members (including farmers associations, farmer support organisations, non-governmental organizations (NGOs, private sector) that work closely with research institutions and national governments in 16 countries of the Pacific Island region to promote organic agriculture.

POETCom's Vision is that Organics and ethical trade are the key contributors to sustaining our cultures and communities, improving farmer livelihoods, people's health and the environment in the Pacific.

POETCom is active at the international level as members of the International Federation of Organic Agriculture Movements (IFOAM), the World Farmers Organization, the Intercontinental Network of Organic Farmers Association and the Civil Society Mechanism of the United Nations World Committee on Food Security.

POETCom is housed within the Pacific Community (SPC), a regional entity serving as the principal scientific and technical organisation throughout the Pacific. SPC was established by the Canberra Agreement establishing the South Pacific Commission in 1947 and is owned and governed by its 26 members, including all 22 Pacific Island countries and territories in addition to the metropolitan members (Australia, France, New Zealand and USA).

Organic agriculture development in the Pacific has been driven by the private sector. Recently, Governments have begun to show keen interest in the myriad benefits of organic agriculture. Experience indicates that Governments benefit from organic policy development guidance and tools. POETCom, with assistance from the EU- Pacific Agriculture Policy Project, UNDP and IFAD, and in collaboration with IFOAM- Organics International, developed the Pacific Organic Policy Tool Kit. <http://www.organicpasifika.com/pasifikapolicytoolkit/>. POETCom has demonstrated through organic policy development in Vanuatu and Fiji that with the right tools and capacity, grass roots farmers organisations can successfully lead policy development at the national level.

The objectives of this project include:

- For Pacific Communities to achieve food and nutritional security and sustainable livelihoods through sustainable and environmentally friendly agriculture policies.
- The project will lead to national policies in targeted countries that establish and endorse sustainable organic agriculture practices.

- POETCom members from Farmers Associations will be trained on how to use the Pacific Organic Policy Tool Kit in order to collaborate with their governments in developing relevant National Policies including sustainable agriculture, trade, tourism, environment and health.
- The development of a Training Manual including POETCom's success stories to build the capacities of POETCom members in advocating for Organic Policies in their respective countries.

ANNEX V
SPC GENERAL CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. LEGAL STATUS

The Contractor has the legal status of an independent Contractor. The Contractor's personnel and sub-contractors are not to be considered in any respect employees or agents of SPC.

2. SOURCE OF INSTRUCTIONS

The Contractor will only accept instructions from SPC in the performance of this contract. The Contractor will refrain from any action that may adversely affect SPC and will fulfil its commitments with the fullest regard to the interests of SPC. Should any authority external to SPC seek to impose any instructions concerning or restrictions on the Contractor's performance under the contract, the Contractor shall promptly notify SPC and provide all reasonable assistance required by SPC.

3. CONTRACTOR'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR EMPLOYEES

3.1 The Contractor shall be responsible for the professional and technical competence of its employees and will select, for work under this contract, reliable individuals who will perform effectively in the implementation of this contract, respect the local customs, and conform to a high standard of moral and ethical conduct.

3.2 The Contractor shall not discriminate against any person because of race, gender, sexual orientation, impairment or disability, religious or political beliefs, age, marital or relationship status, pregnancy, breastfeeding or other family responsibilities.

4. SPECIFIED PERSONNEL

The Contractor must ensure that the services are performed in accordance with this contract. Where personnel have been specified, they must provide those services.

SPC may remove any personnel (including Specified Personnel) from work in respect of this Contract. If it does so, or if Specified Personnel are unable or unwilling to perform the contract, the Contractor will provide replacement personnel (acceptable to SPC) of suitable ability and qualifications at no additional cost and at the earliest opportunity.

5. ASSIGNMENT

The Contractor may not assign, transfer, pledge or make other disposition of this contract or any part thereof, or any of the Contractor's rights, claims or obligations under this contract except with the prior written consent of SPC.

6. SUB-CONTRACTING

6.1 Any intention to subcontract aspects of the contract must be specified in detail in the proposal submitted. Information concerning the subcontractor, including the qualifications of the staff proposed for use must be covered with same degree of thoroughness as for the prime Contractor. No subcontracting will be permitted under the contract unless it is proposed in the initial submission or is agreed to by SPC in writing. In any event, the total responsibility for the contract remains with the Contractor. The Contractor shall be responsible for ensuring that all subcontracts shall be fully consistent with the contract and shall not in any way prejudice the implementation of any of its provisions.

6.2 Prior to employing individuals or engaging subcontractors to perform services under this contract, the Contractor agrees, at its own expense, to perform due diligence necessary to ensure compliance with the terms of this contract.

7. OFFICIALS NOT TO BENEFIT

The Contractor warrants that no official of SPC has received or will be offered by the Contractor any direct or indirect benefit arising from this contract or the award thereof. The Contractor agrees that breach of this provision is a breach of an essential term of this contract.

8. INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 The Contractor shall indemnify, hold and save harmless, and defend, at its own expense, SPC, its officials, agents, servants and employees from and against all suits, claims, demands, and liability of any nature or kind, including their costs and expenses, arising out of acts or omissions of the Contractor, or the Contractor's employees, officers, agents or sub-contractors, in the performance of this contract. This obligation does not extend to actions and omissions of SPC.

8.2 This provision shall extend, inter alia, to claims and liability in the nature of workmen's compensation, products liability and liability arising out of the use of patented inventions or devices, copyrighted material or other intellectual property by the Contractor, its employees, officers, agents, servants or sub-contractors.

8.3 The obligations under this clause do not lapse upon termination of this contract.

9. FRAUD AND CORRUPTION

9.1 The Contractor shall adhere to the highest standard of ethical conduct and not engage in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices.

9.2 The Contractor agrees to bring allegations of corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices arising in relation to this contract, of which the Contractor has been informed or has otherwise become aware, promptly to the attention of SPC.

9.3 For purposes of this contract, the following definitions shall apply:

(i) "corruption" means the abuse of entrusted power for private gain. It may include improperly influencing the actions of another party or causing harm to another party. The gain or benefit may be for the person doing the act or for others.

(ii) "fraud" means any dishonest act or omission that causes loss or detriment to SPC or results in an unauthorised benefit or advantage to either the person(s) acting or omitting or to a third party. The act or omission can be either deliberate or reckless in relation to the harm caused or the benefit or advantage obtained.

9.4 Any breach of this representation and warranty shall entitle SPC to terminate this contract immediately upon notice to the Contractor, at no cost to SPC.

10. INSURANCE AND LIABILITIES TO THIRD PARTIES

10.1 SPC shall have no responsibility for the purchase of any insurance which may be necessary in respect to any loss, injury, damage or illness occurring during the execution by the Contractor of the present contract.

10.2 The Contractor will hold insurance against all risks in respect of its employees, sub-contractors, property and equipment used for the execution of this contract, including appropriate worker's compensation for personal injury or death.

10.3 The Contractor will also hold liability insurance in an adequate amount to cover third party claims for any claims arising from or in connection with the provision of services under this contract.

10.4 The Contractor shall, upon request, provide SPC with satisfactory evidence of insurance cover as required under this clause.

11. ENCUMBRANCES/LIENS

The Contractor shall not cause or permit any lien, attachment or other encumbrance by any person to be placed on file or to remain on file in any public office or on file with SPC against any monies due or to become due for any work done or materials furnished under this contract, or by reason of any other claim or demand against the Contractor.

12. TITLE TO EQUIPMENT

Title to any equipment and supplies that may be provided by SPC rests with SPC. Such equipment shall be returned to SPC at the conclusion of this contract or when no longer needed by the Contractor. On return, the equipment shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Contractor, subject to normal wear and tear. The Contractor shall be liable to compensate SPC for equipment determined to be damaged or degraded beyond normal wear and tear.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

13.1 SPC is entitled to all intellectual property and other proprietary rights including but not limited to patents, copyrights, and trademarks, with regard to products, or documents and other materials which bear a direct relation to or are produced or prepared or collected in consequence of or in the course of the execution of this contract. This includes derivative works created as a result of products created pursuant to this contract.

13.2 At SPC's request, the Contractor shall take all necessary steps, execute all necessary documents, and generally assist in securing such proprietary rights and transferring them to SPC.

14. USE OF NAME, EMBLEM OR OFFICIAL SEAL OF SPC

The Contractor shall not advertise or otherwise make public the fact that it is a Contractor with SPC, nor shall the Contractor, in any manner whatsoever use the name, emblem or official seal of SPC, or any abbreviation of the name of SPC in connection with its business or otherwise without SPC's prior written approval.

15. CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION

15.1 All documents and information relating to the contract as well as any other information of which the Contractor becomes aware in the course of performing the contract that is not in the public domain must be treated as confidential during and beyond the term of the contract. The Contractor shall not be permitted to make use of any such data and information for the contractor's own purposes.

15.2 The Contractor may not communicate at any time to any other person, Government or authority external to SPC, any information known to it by reason of its association with SPC which has not been made public except with the authorisation of SPC; nor shall the Contractor at any time use such information to private advantage. These obligations do not lapse upon termination of this Contract.

16. TAX EXEMPTION

16.1 Under host country agreements and legislation of SPC members conferring privileges and immunities, as an intergovernmental organisation SPC is exempt from all direct taxes, except charges for public utility services, and is exempt from customs duties and charges of a similar nature in respect of articles imported or exported for its official use. In the event any governmental authority refuses to recognise SPC's exemption from such taxes, duties or charges, the Contractor shall immediately consult with SPC to determine a mutually acceptable procedure.

16.2 The Contractor authorises SPC to deduct from the Contractor's invoice any amount representing such taxes, duties or charges, unless the Contractor has consulted with SPC before the payment thereof and SPC has, in each instance, specifically authorised the Contractor to pay such taxes, duties or charges under protest. In that event, the Contractor shall provide SPC with written evidence that payment of such taxes, duties or charges has been made and appropriately authorised.

16.3 The Contractor is responsible for payment of their own income taxes.

17. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

17.1 The Contractor must take all the necessary measures to prevent any situation of conflict of interest or professional conflicting interest.

17.2 The Contractor must notify SPC in writing as soon as possible of any situation that could constitute a conflict of interest during the performance of the contract. The Contractor must immediately take action to rectify the situation. SPC may do any of the following:

1. verify that the Contractor's action is appropriate,
2. require the Contractor to take further action within a specified deadline.

18. SOCIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY

18.1 SPC has committed to ethically and sustainably managing social and environmental risks and impacts of its activities through its Social and Environmental Responsibility Policy.

18.2 Accordingly, SPC requires the Contractor to comply with the following obligations.

Child protection

18.3 The Contractor represents and warrants that neither it, nor any of its suppliers is engaged in any practice inconsistent with the rights set forth in the Convention on the Rights of the Child. This includes, among other things, Article 3 which requires the best interests of the child to be a primary consideration in all actions concerning children; Article 32 which protects children from economic exploitation and child labour; and Article 34 which protects children from sexual exploitation and abuse.

Where the Contractor is providing services directly related to or involving children, the Contractor will either have its own Child protection policy in place or use its best endeavours to act in accordance with the principles of SPC's child protection policy.

The Contractor agrees to bring allegations of any abuse or exploitation of children arising in relation to this contract, of which the Contractor has been informed or has otherwise become aware, promptly to the attention of SPC.

18.4 Any breach of this representation and warranty shall entitle SPC to terminate this contract immediately upon notice to the Contractor, at no cost to SPC.

Human rights

18.5 The Contractor is committed to respecting, and acting in a manner which avoids infringing on, human rights, and ensures that they are not complicit in human rights abuses committed by others.

18.6 Any breach of this representation and warranty shall entitle SPC to terminate this contract immediately upon notice to the Contractor, at no cost to SPC.

Gender equality and social inclusion

18.7 SPC is committed to progress gender equality and social inclusion in all area of its work. The Contractor is expected to respect gender equality and diversity in the workplace.

18.8 The Contractor is expected to have measures in place to ensure equal pay for work of equal value, to prevent bullying and any forms discrimination; and to ensure a safe workplace environment for women and men of all diversities.

Sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual exploitation

18.9 SPC will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment, abuse or exploitation. The Contractor shall refrain from and shall take all reasonable and appropriate measures to prohibit its employees or other persons engaged and controlled by it from engaging in sexual harassment, sexual abuse and sexual exploitation.

18.10 The Contractor agrees to bring allegations of sexual harassment, sexual abuse or sexual exploitation arising in relation to this contract, of which the Contractor has been Informed or has otherwise become aware, promptly to the attention of SPC.

18.11 For purposes of this contract, the following definitions shall apply:

1. "sexual harassment" means behaviour that is unwelcome, unsolicited, unreciprocated of a sexual nature. It is behaviour that is likely to offend, humiliate or intimidate.
2. "sexual abuse" means actual or threatened physical intrusion of a sexual nature, whether by force or under unequal or coercive conditions.
3. "sexual exploitation" means any actual or attempted abuse of a position of vulnerability, differential power, or trust for sexual purposes. It includes profiting monetarily, socially, or politically from sexual exploitation of another.

18.12 Any breach of this representation and warranty shall entitle SPC to terminate this contract immediately upon notice to the Contractor, at no cost to SPC.

Environmental responsibility

18.13 The Contractor must ensure a rational use and management of natural resources and ecosystems.

18.14 The Contractor shall use all efforts to prevent or, where not possible, to minimise the impact of their activities towards climate change and damage to the environment.

19. ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING/COUNTER TERRORISM FINANCING

19.1 The Contractor agrees to take all reasonable efforts to ensure that none of the funds received under this contract are used for money laundering or for terrorism financing.

19.2 The Contractor agrees that the recipients of any amounts provided by SPC hereunder do not appear on the list maintained by the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999). The list can be accessed via:

<https://scsanctions.un.org/fop/fop?xml=htdocs/resources/xml/en/consolidated.xml&xslt=htdocs/resources/xsl/en/consolidated.xsl>

19.3 For purposes of this contract, the following definitions shall apply:

1. "money laundering" means the conversion or transfer of property, knowing that such property is the proceeds of crime, for the purpose of concealing or disguising the illicit origin of the property or of helping any person who is involved in the commission of the predicate offence to evade the legal consequences of his or her actions, or the concealment or disguise of the true nature, source, location, disposition, movement or ownership of or rights with respect to property, knowing that such property is the proceeds of crime.
2. "terrorism financing" means directly or indirectly, unlawfully and wilfully, provides or collects funds with the intention that they should be used or in the knowledge that they are to be used, in full or in part, in order to carry out acts of terrorism.

19.4 Any breach of this representation and warranty shall entitle SPC to terminate this contract immediately upon notice to the Contractor, at no cost to SPC.

20. OBSERVANCE OF THE LAW

The Contractor must comply with all laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations bearing upon the performance of its obligations under the terms of this contract.

21. AUTHORITY TO MODIFY

No modification or change, nor waiver of any of this contract's provisions will be valid and enforceable against SPC unless provided by an amendment to this contract signed by the authorised official of SPC.

22. FORCE MAJEURE AND OTHER CHANGES IN CONDITIONS

22.1 Force majeure for the purposes of this contract means any unforeseeable and irresistible act of nature, any act of war (whether declared or not), invasion, revolution, insurrection, terrorism, or any other acts of a similar nature or force, provided that such acts arise from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor.

22.2 The Contractor should notify SPC within fifteen (15) days of the occurrence of the force majeure event. The Contractor shall also notify SPC of any other changes in conditions or the occurrence of any event which interferes or threatens to interfere with its performance of this contract.

22.3 The notice shall include steps proposed by the Contractor to be taken, including any reasonable alternative means for performance that is not prevented by force majeure. On receipt of the notice required under this clause, SPC shall take such action as, in its sole discretion, it considers to be appropriate or necessary in the circumstances, including the granting to the Contractor of a reasonable extension of time in which to perform its obligations under this contract.

22.4 If the Contractor is rendered permanently unable, wholly or in part, by reason of force majeure to perform its obligations and meet its responsibilities under this contract, SPC shall have the right to suspend or terminate this contract on the same terms and conditions as are provided for in clause 23 "Termination", except that the period of notice shall be seven (7) days instead of thirty (30) days.

23. TERMINATION

23.1 Either party may terminate this contract for cause, in whole or in part, with fifteen (15) days' written notice to the other party. The initiation of arbitral proceedings in accordance with clause 24 "Settlement of Disputes" below shall not be deemed a termination of this contract.

23.2 SPC reserves the right to terminate without cause this contract, at any time with thirty (30) days written notice to the Contractor, in which case SPC shall reimburse the Contractor for all reasonable costs incurred by the Contractor prior to receipt of the notice of termination.

23.3 In the event of any termination by SPC under this clause, no payment shall be due from SPC to the Contractor except for work and services satisfactorily performed in conformity with the express terms of this contract. The Contractor shall take immediate steps to terminate the work and services in a prompt and orderly manner and to minimise losses and further expenditure.

23.4 Should the Contractor be adjudged bankrupt, or be liquidated or become insolvent, or should the Contractor make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or should a receiver be appointed on account of the insolvency of the Contractor, SPC may, without prejudice to any other right or remedy it may have, terminate this contract forthwith. The Contractor shall immediately inform SPC of the occurrence of any of the above events.

24. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

24.1 The Parties will use their best efforts to settle amicably any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this contract or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof.

24.2 If a dispute is not settled within sixty days of one Party notifying the other of a request for amicable settlement, the dispute can be referred by either Party to arbitration in accordance with the general principles of international law. The arbitration will be governed by the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) as at present in force. The arbitral tribunal shall have no authority to award punitive damages. The Parties shall be bound by any arbitration award rendered as a result of such arbitration as the final adjudication of any such controversy, claim or dispute.

25. PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

Nothing in or relating to this contract shall be deemed a waiver, express or implied, of any of the privileges and immunities of SPC.
